Henry

I am writing in regard to your recent expressed concerns about the 1983 CIA investigation of [redacted]

25X1

I have had the case reviewed and I regret the Agency did not pass the polygraph-derived information to DIA sooner. Our decision at that time was a judgment call, influenced largely by the fact that [redacted] withdrew himself from consideration of further employment and did not complete our security processing. As you know, we subsequently passed the information to DIA during a recent reinvestigation [redacted]

25X1

To try to avoid such problems in the future, I have asked [redacted] CIA's Director of Security, to review the process and procedures with [redacted] DIA's Director of Security. [redacted]

Sincerely,

[redacted]

Robert M. Gates
Deputy Director of Central Intelligence
